

The Heidelberger Fecht-Club, as a department of the TSG Rohrbach, is looking for a

Épée Coach (m/f/d) – Full Time

As one of Heidelberg's largest sports club, we represent all age groups as well as a range of performance levels among our approximately 130 members. Our goal is to continue our international successes in the senior, veteran and wheelchair fencing divisions while expanding our position as a "Center for Junior Performance Sports" within the Deutscher Fechter-Bund through innovative concepts.

We offer:

- Favorable working atmosphere in an international university city.
- Friendly, positive club environment
- Modern fencing hall with eight permanently installed pistes in large sports complex
- Creative freedom for your own ideas
- Support from a motivated team of assistant coaches and department board members
- Attractive salary with additional financial benefits on achievement of athletic goals

We are looking for:

- Open-minded, cooperative personality
- Coaching experience (Épée)
- Team-oriented and motivated attitude
- Fresh ideas for performance development
- New training concepts
- Interest in a lively club life
- Good German language skills
-

Main tasks:

- Plan and lead creative group training sessions and individual lessons
- Coordinate the team of coaches and assistant coaches
- Plan and support fencers at competitions
- Promote all age groups, including young fencers
- Strengthen wheelchair fencing
- Direct courses and training camps

Please send your application including salary expectations to: job@fechten-in-heidelberg.de.